

A Sampling of Grants for Individuals

Note: Career Development strives to keep our information up-to-date, but does not guarantee the accuracy of this data. Please let us know if you encounter any misinformation and we will do our best to correct it.

American Craft Council - Emerging Artist Grants

Program provides support for emerging artists working in all craft media (clay, glass, fiber, metal, wood and mixed-media) to support the creation of a new body of work, travel and research, or to attend professional development workshops.

<http://www.craftcouncil.org/> (click on "The Council" and then click on "Programs")

Artslink Projects

Artslink Projects provides support to US artists, curators and arts organizations to work with their counterparts in 27 countries in Central and Eastern Europe and the Newly Independent States. Projects should be designed to benefit participants and audiences in both countries. CEC International Partners can assist interested applicants in identifying contacts in the region.

<http://www.cecartslink.org/>

Asian Art and Religion Fellowship Program

Program focuses on the relationship between the artistic and religious traditions of Asia. Enables American scholar, specialists and artists to conduct research and undertake projects in Asia involving the interdisciplinary relationship of religion and the arts. Established by Lawrence W. Rockefeller.

<http://www.asianculturalcouncil.org/>

Asian Studies Grants - Association for Asian Studies

The Association for Asian Studies (AAS)—the largest society of its kind in the world—is a scholarly, non-political, non-profit professional association open to all persons interested in Asia. It seeks through publications, meetings, and seminars to facilitate contact and an exchange of information among scholars to increase their understanding of East, South, and Southeast Asia. It counts among its members scholars, business people, diplomats, journalists, and interested lay persons. <http://www.aasianst.org/grants/grants.htm>

Arts Exchange Programs - Asian Cultural Council

The Asian Cultural Council supports cultural exchange in visual and performing arts between the U.S. and the countries of Asia. Although the major focus is to support visits by Asian scholars and artists, some grants are available for Americans to travel and conduct research in Asia. Grants are also awarded to institutions for projects involving cultural exchange between Asia and the U.S.

<http://www.asianculturalcouncil.org/programs.html>

Boren Undergraduate Scholarships for Study Abroad - IIE

The Institute of International Education invites applications to the David L. Boren Undergraduate Scholarship Program (formerly the National Security Education Program Fellowships for Undergraduates), to support the study of languages and cultures currently underrepresented in study abroad. Scholarships are awarded for study in all countries except Canada, Australia, New Zealand, and those in Western Europe. Scholarships provide up to $10,000 for one academic term, based on need.

<http://www.iie.org/nsep/>

Center for Documentary Studies

The Center for Documentary Studies at Duke University seeks applications for the annual $10,000 Dorothea Lange-Paul Taylor Prize, awarded to a collaborative team consisting of a writer and photographer who are in the formative or fieldwork stage of a documentary project.

<http://www-cds.aas.duke.edu/l-t/index2.html>

College Art Association Fellowship

Numerous fellowship and scholarship opportunities available. The Professional Development Fellowship Scholarship awards $5,000 for use during the final year of the M.F.A., terminal M.A. or Ph.D. program. CAA then helps each fellow secure employment or an internship at a museum, art center, college, or university, and subsidizes part of his/her salary. Eligible applicants should be artists and art historians from culturally diverse backgrounds who have been underrepresented in the field due to their race, religion, gender, age, national origin, disability or history of economic disadvantage. <http://www.collegeart.org/caa/career/fellowship.html>

Contact: The College Art Association, Professional Development Fellowship Program, 275 Seventh Avenue, New York, NY 10001-6708; Tel: (212) 691-1051, Ext. 206; Fax: (212) 627-2381; E-mail: estaller@collegeart.org

Creative Capital, a national nonprofit organization that provides funding for artists:

<http://www.creative-capital.org>

Croatian Arts and Culture – Arts International

The FACE Croatia program aims to increase awareness and appreciation for Croatian arts and culture. Funds are available for arts and culture projects in Croatia and for cultural exchanges involving individual artists or arts organizations from the U.S. and Croatia.

<http://www.artsinternational.org/programs/face/index.htm>

The Elizabeth Foundation

A grants program open to working professional visual artists who; demonstrate professional achievement and commitment to career; work primarily in painting, sculpture, drawing and printmaking; and who are 30 years or older. The grants range from $2500 to $12,000 and may be used for anything that will allow the artist to create work or gain recognition for work. The Elizabeth Foundation for the Arts PO Box 2670 New York, NY 10108

Fondation des Etats-Unis

The foundation awards Harriet Hale Woolley Scholarships to accomplished American graduate students for study in visual fine arts (painting, graphic design, printmaking, or sculpture) or music (instrumental or vocal performance) in Paris in a recognized French school or music conservatory. Applicants must be between the ages of 21 and 29, and be proficient in the French language. Awards include a stipend of $8,000 for the academic year.

<http://www.feusa.org>

The Francis Clark Wood Scholarship

Grant for research at the Institute for the History of Medicine of the College of Physicians of Philadelphia (The Mutter Museum): up to $1,000.

Contact: The Francis Wood Clark Scholarship, c/oThe College of Physicians of Philadelphia, 19 South 22 St., Philadelphia, PA 19103

French Cinema in France - FACSEA

Scholarship for master's or Ph.D. candidates who are U.S. citizens to study French cinema in France. The scholarship includes a monthly stipend of around *1,300 (about $1,160) for 9 months, plus health insurance and round-trip transportation to France.

<http://www.facsea.org/facsealinks/scholarship.html>

Fulbright Scholar Program

www.cies.org

U.S. Department of State Fulbright Program

<http://www.iie.org/fulbright/>

Benjamin A. Gilman International Scholarship Program

Scholarships of up to $5,000 for undergraduate students of limited financial means to pursue study programs outside of the United States for up to one year. Sponsored by the U.S. Department of State Bureau of Educational and Cultural Affairs.

<http://www.iie.org/gilman>

Adolph and Esther Gottlieb Foundation

Individual support grant to provide funds for mature (at least 20 years in the field), painters, sculptors and printmakers in current financial need. Also emergency grants for fire, flood, medical, or other catastrophic events. Contact: Gottlieb Foundation, 380 West Broadway, New York, NY 10012, (212) 226-0581.

Grants for Women in the Arts - BDMF

The Barbara Deming Memorial Fund invites applications for small grants ($350 to $1,000) for feminist women in the arts whose work in some way focuses upon women. Grants limited to fields of art, fiction and nonfiction prose, and poetry. Contact: Money for Women, Barbara Deming Memorial Fund, P.O. 630125, Bronx, NY 10463.

Graham Foundation for Advanced Studies in the Fine Arts

The mission of the Graham Foundation is to nurture and enrich an informed and creative public dialogue concerning architecture and the built environment.

<http://www.grahamfoundation.org/>

Elizabeth Greenshields Foundation

For visual artists under 31 years of age who work in painting, drawing, sculpture or printmaking. Work must be representational or figurative; foundation's charter forbids the support of other styles. Contact: Greenshields Foundation, 1814 Sherbrooke St. West, Apt. 1, Montreal, PQ, Canada H3H 1E4. (514) 937-9225.

John Simon Guggenheim Memorial Foundation

Fellowships to Assist Research and Artistic Creation

<http://www.gf.org/broch.html>

International Research and Exchanges Board (IREX)

Fellowships to US pre doctoral and postdoctoral scholars for individual long-term research in Central Europe and Eurasia. Countries include: Albania, Bosnia and Herzegovina, Bulgaria, Croatia, Czech Republic, Estonia, Federal Republic of Yugoslavia, Hungary, Iran, Latvia, Lithuania, Macedonia, Poland, Romania, Slovakia, Slovenia, Turkey, Eurasia: Armenia, Azerbaijan, Belarus, Georgia, Iran, Kazakhstan, Kyrgyzstan, Moldova, Russian Federation, Tajikistan, Turkey, Ukraine, and Uzbekistan.

<http://www.irex.org/>

International Research and Exchanges Board (IREX) Short-term Travel Grants

IREX offers short-term travel grants to U.S. scholars in the humanities and social sciences for visits of up to 2 months to conduct postdoctoral research, present papers at conferences, or engage in collaborative projects in countries of Central and Eastern Europe, Eurasia, Iran, and Turkey. Projects should improve public, cultural, and historical knowledge of these regions through dissemination of research results. Grants are up to $3,000 and include airfare, per diem, and other incidental expenses.

<http://www.irex.org/programs/stg/>

Institute of Turkish Studies

The Institute of Turkish Studies offers grants and fellowships in the field of Ottoman and modern Turkish studies. The Institute provides dissertation writing grants; grants to graduate students for summer travel and language study or research in Turkey; and grants to postdoctoral scholars for summer research in Turkey.

<http://www.turkishstudies.org/grantsprogram1.html>

The Japan Foundation -- Arts Programs

Artist Fellowships provide artists the opportunity to pursue creative projects in Japan for 2 to 6 months.

<http://www.jfny.org/jfny/arts.html>

Langlois Foundation

The Daniel Langlois Foundation for Art, Science, and Technology annually awards two grants to individuals making an exceptional contribution to advancing knowledge at the crossroads of art, science, and technology, or to individuals whose projects are highly original or innovative. Projects proposed by scientific researchers, computer scientists, or engineers must involve a partnership with an artist.

<http://www.fondation-langlois.org/e/programmes/index.html>

Lannan Foundation

Since 1983, the Lannan Foundation has awarded over five thousand grants to various literary and visual artists, cultural preservation and social programs. The foundation firmly believes in the importance of fostering creativity, diversity and innovation.

<http://www.lannan.org/index.htm>

The Lemmermann Foundation

The Foundation awards scholarships to university students who need to study in Rome in order to carry out research and prepare their theses concerning Rome and Roman culture.

<http://lemmermann.nexus.it/lemmermann/>

Liquitex "Excellence in Art" Purchase Award Program

Awards totaling over $14,000 in cash and products will be made to artists demonstrating skill and creativity in the use of acrylic paints.

<http://www.liquitex.com/awardprograms/eia/eia.cfm>

Nansen Fund - Exchange Program with Norway

The John Dana Archbold Fellowship Program supports educational exchange between the U.S. and Norway, for graduate, postdoctoral, or professional study and research. U.S. applicants must be between the ages of 20 and 35 and show evidence of a high level of competence in their chosen field. The scholarship can only be applied to studies or research carried out at the University of Oslo. The grants provide a maintenance stipend sufficient to meet expenses of a single person, plus round-trip travel. Tuition is free.

http://www.noram.no/amerikansk/sch_us.html

Onassis Public Benefit Foundation

The Alexander S. Onassis Public Benefit Foundation seeks applications for grants from foreign full members of Academies of Science, university professors and researchers, artists, and translators of Greek literature, and for scholarships from postgraduate students and Ph.D. candidates. The aim of the program is the dissemination of the Hellenic language, culture, and history abroad. Grants are awarded in the fields of humanistic sciences, political science, law, economics, architecture, and the arts, and provide round-trip airfare, accommodations, and a monthly allowance.

<http://www.onassis.gr/english/scholars/foreign.html>

Palestinian American Research Center Fellowships

The Palestinian American Research Center invites applications for postdoctoral and doctoral research fellowships in Palestinian studies for 2002/03. Studies may be in any field and cover any historical time period. Awards provide $4,500 to $6,000 for 3 to 4 months, plus up to $1,000 for travel expenses.

http://www.parcenter.org/fellowship_program/fellowship_program.html

Pollock-Krasner Foundation

Grants awarded to professional visual artists for their personal, professional, or medical needs. The amount of the grants depends on the individual situation of the artist. Contact: Pollock-Krasner Foundation, P.O. Box 4957, New York, NY, 10185, (212) 517-5400.

<http://pkf.org>

Radcliffe Institute for Advanced Study

Radcliffe Institute fellowships are designed to support scholars, scientists, artists, and writers of exceptional promise and demonstrated accomplishments who wish to pursue work in academic and professional fields and in the creative arts.

<http://www.radcliffe.edu/fellowships/index.php>

Summer Academy in Korean Studies at Keimyung

Keimyung University, located in Daegu, South Korea, is offering a six-week summer academy in Korean Studies. The academy is aimed at undergraduate students who want to make use of the summer vacation to take Korea-related foundation courses. It is open to all majors, and is especially suited to those who want to integrate aspects of Korean Studies into their major studies, or satisfy their personal interest in Korea. All the courses offer critical introductions to subjects such as Korean history, religions, literature, economy, language, society, and art, and are taught in English by experts in these fields. Students can choose up to three courses, which is equivalent to nine credits. Besides the main academic program, there are also many cultural activities and fields trips scheduled. The dates for the academy are July 3 to August 12 2006. The deadline for all applications is May 31, but for early applications (deadline: March 31) a tuition discount is available.

<http://www.h-net.org/announce/show.cgi?ID=149926>

A Room of Her Own

"Gift of Freedom" awards in support of women who have a track record of commitment to their work in the visual arts or writing. Awards of up to $50,000 payable over a two year period.

<http://www.aroomofherownfoundation.org/>

Aaron Siskind Foundation - Photography Fellowships

Grants of up to $5,000 to individuals working in photography based media. Students enrolled at any time during the 2002 calendar year are not eligible to apply.

<http://www.aaronsiskind.org/grant.html>

Uncommon Legacy Foundation Grants

The uncommon Legacy Foundation awards grants of up to $5,000 to fund studies and projects specific to lesbians.

<http://www.uncommonlegacy.org>

Weimar Scholarships – Stiftung Weimarer Klassik

Stiftung Weimarer Klassik supports academic, literary, and artistic projects on the cultural history of Europe from the 18th to 20th centuries that require the use of materials available in Weimar. Of particular interest are projects on the Goethe era by foreign academics, and work by young academics on the historical/critical edition of Arnim's works. The scholarships provide 2,000 DM (around $920) per month for 1 to 6 months to postdoctoral scholars, plus accommodation expenses of 250 to 300 DM per month.

<http://www.weimar-klassik.de/sprache.html>

Women's Studio Workshop

Artists' Book Production Grants are designed to assist artists working in their own studios with the publication of a limited edition artists' book. Contact: Women's Studio Workshop, PO Box 489, Rosendale, NY 12472, (845) 658-9133.

<http://www.wsworkshop.org>