Current Thoughts: Done binge watching Netflix’s MAKING A MURDERER and want to see something similar? Try Joe Berlinger’s and Bruce Sinofsky’s three-part doc PARADISE LOST (available at Decker) The Charles will be screening Joshua Oppenheimer’s THE LOOK OF SILENCE, a companion piece to THE ACT OF KILLING (available). Fandor is streaming THE WOODMANS (available), a documentary about the life and death of photographer Francesca Woodman, renowned for her nude self-portraits. In preparation for the Martin Luther King, Jr. holiday, check out recently purchased, archival footage-rich KING: A FILMED RECORD... MONTGOMERY TO MEMPHIS. Have a great January!
