... love doing research or not?...here's a way to start the romance...

Introductory how to do research books from Decker Library:

Basics:

The Elements of Library Research: what every student needs to know by Mary. W. George Z710.G44 2008 stacks. Concise, practical guide giving the basics of college level research from turning a topic into a research question to executing your research plan. With helpful timeline suggestions and more.

Beyond the Answer Sheet: academic success for international students by William B. Badke LB2375 .B33 2003 stacks. Basic introduction with focused explanation on Western education but all students may benefit from his clear explanation of understanding the nature of research from what is expected in the classroom to doing your final paper.

More Advanced:

The College Student’s Research Companion: finding, evaluating, and citing the resources you need to succeed by Arlene R. Quarantiello with Jane Devine, 5th ed. Z710.Q37 2011 stacks. From creating your strategy, doing effective online searches, to integrating your research for the final product. Includes exercises to help you along.

---

m.sade, 4/8/11