Job Title: Part-time Faculty in Humanistic Studies
Department: Humanistic Studies
Division: Academic Affairs
FLSA Status: Part-time position with a multi-year renewable contract in a non-tenure institution
Reports to: Chair

Position: Part-time appointment in Humanistic Studies Department. The Humanistic Studies Department of Maryland Institute College of Art invites applications for part-time faculty positions with a multi-year renewable contract in a non-tenure institution beginning Spring 2015.

Job Description:

The faculty position will teach 1.5 –6.0 credits per year (one to three courses per semester) at an art school nationally known for its dedication to teaching excellence, a rigorous liberal arts curriculum and the importance of the fine arts. The candidate will be capable of teaching all levels of the undergraduate program, be proficient in traditional techniques, and have a broad understanding of new approaches to teaching academic writing.

The interdisciplinary nature of the Department and College requires that faculty maintain an active professional practice and meaningfully contribute in a variety of areas that include: all aspects of departmental operations and institutional governance including departmental management, advising, institutional and departmental committee service and scheduled departmental and student activities and coordinating the department exhibitions of student work during the school year. In addition to teaching, all part-time faculty are expected to pursue research and/or professional engagements that contribute to the educational mission of the department and college.

Requirements:

- MA in TESOL degree

Valued, but not required:

- Minimum 1 year of full-time teaching experience (at the college-level beyond graduate assistantships is preferred).
- Background in studio art or art history and criticism.

Additional Information:

Salary: Commensurate with experience and college policy

Apply: The College will review applications as received. Although materials received before December 1 are best assured of receiving full consideration, the position will remain open until filled. All inquiries, nominations and applications will be held in the strictest confidence.
Application Instructions:

Please send curriculum vitae to Elizabeth Wagenheim at ewagenheim@mica.edu.

Please format PDF documents for screen resolution and viewing. No physical media are requested nor will be returned.

About MICA:

The Maryland Institute College of Art (MICA), founded in 1826, is consistently ranked among the very top tier of visual arts colleges in the nation and enrolls approximately 1,800 undergraduate students and 300 graduate students. MICA offers programs of study leading to the BFA, MA, MAT, and MFA degrees, as well as post-baccalaureate certificate programs and a full slate of credit and noncredit courses for adults, college-bound students, and children. MICA is also recognized as an important cultural resource for the Baltimore/Washington region, sponsoring many public and community-outreach programs, including more than 100 exhibitions by students, faculty, and nationally and internationally known artists annually, as well artists’ residencies, film series, lectures, readings, performances. Visit the College’s website at www.mica.edu.

MICA is an equal opportunity employer. As an educational institution dedicated to individual development in the visual arts, MICA nurtures, supports, and celebrates diversity in all of its forms including aesthetic, cultural, and philosophical and does not discriminate on the basis of race, ethnicity, color, religion, age, national origin, gender, gender identity, sexual orientation, disability status, socio-economic status, and marital status. This requires that the College develop and maintain a diverse community of trustees, administration, staff, faculty, and students; and that diversity is a fundamental philosophic value that informs the content of all of its programs and activities. MICA’s commitment to diversity prepares its graduates to excel professionally and assume leadership roles in a global context.

MICA provides reasonable accommodations to applicants with disabilities on a case-by-case basis. If you need a reasonable accommodation for any part of the application and hiring process, please contact Human Resources at 410-225-2363.