Strength of Congressional Party Affiliation

The chart below shows the total campaign receipts for each member of congress for a given Congressional Session, as well as the strength of each member's party affiliation. Nodes found on the extreme left and extreme right represent members who are more likely to vote with their party on any given bill.

Aggregated Total Spending by Party Affiliation

The following chart represents the sum of all contributions for each subset of party affiliation. These are broken down into 4 distinct categories from Far Left to Far Right.

Data retrieved from:
Federal Election Commission - Candidate Summary
Vote View - DW Nominate Scores with Bootstrapped Standard Errors